GOV. EASLEY TO SIGN SCHOOL CALENDAR BILL INTO LAW IN WILMINGTON AND NEW BERN

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley will sign into law House Bill 1464, which creates a uniform statewide calendar for North Carolina in 2005 at 11:30 a.m., TODAY (August 9) at the Louise Wells Cameron Art Museum (3201 South 17th Street) in Wilmington and also at 1:00 p.m. in the Tryon Palace Historic Sites and Gardens' Auditorium (610 Pollock Street) in New Bern.

Directions to Wilmington site:

From Interstate-40, continue onto College Rd. and travel five miles to 17th Street. Turn right onto 17th Street and go about one mile to the Museum Drive entrance just before the 17th Street/Independence Blvd. intersection. Continue through to the visitor parking lot.

Directions to New Bern site:

From U.S. 70 east, take a left on to U.S. 17 N. (Martin Luther King Blvd.). Turn right on to George Street. Then take a right on to Eden Street. Tryon Palace will be in front of you.

From U.S. 17 south, turn right off of bridge when coming into New Bern. Take a left onto Pollock Street. Palace is at intersection of Pollock and George St.
